NOTES

Court forms are available at:

www.ag.gov.bc.ca/courts/other/supreme/2010SupRules/info/index_civil.htm.

They can be completed online and filed electronically using Court Services Online:

www.courtservicesonline.gov.bc.ca.

They can also be printed and completed manually; or completed online, printed and filed.

File this form in the court registry and personally serve it on the party against whom you obtained default judgment.

1. The style of proceeding is the part at the top of your document that identifies your case within the court system. You will use the style of proceeding on every one of your documents, whether they are filed in the court registry or not. The court registry will insert the registry number, which you must use on all your documents. Insert the location of the registry (e.g., Vancouver). Write in the names of the plaintiff and defendant in capital letters (not addresses).
 2. Choose the appropriate option and delete the other one.
 3. Choose the appropriate option and delete the rest. Name the defendant(s) who are the subject of the court's order. Complete the option that the court ordered (payment to the plaintiff of a fixed amount; payment to the plaintiff an amount to be assessed; delivery of goods to the plaintiff; or payment to the plaintiff of the value of the goods to be assessed).
 4. Check off one or more boxes that apply to your order.
 5. This amount is interest owing on your unpaid judgment.
 6. Court order interest rates are posted on the court's website at www.Courts.gov.bc.ca/Supreme_Court/about_the_Supreme_Court. Scroll down to Registrar's Office and click Court Order Interest Rates.
 7. Calculate the costs by looking at s. 6(1) of Appendix B to the Supreme Court Civil Rules, plus your disbursements.
 8. Check this box if your costs are still to be assessed.
